

October Membership Meeting Program

"Ask the Artist"

Discover the world of art and entrepreneurship in our upcoming presentation with Lynn Goldstein on Monday, October 23 at 7:30pm.

Lynn Goldstein is a seasoned professional artist with over twenty-five years of experience, and she is inviting you to delve into her artistic journey and business insights. Don't miss this unique opportunity to gain valuable insights and inspiration from Lynn. Come armed with questions that are pertinent to you and your art practice.

Lynn's work has garnered her recognition in both local and international publications, and she has had representation in multiple commercial galleries over the years. She's not only a Torpedo Factory Artist but also a studio artist at the Workhouse Arts Center. Lynn is also a juried member of the prestigious Washington Society of Landscape Painters. As a result, Lynn has ample knowledge regarding presenting her work.

Since 2015, Lynn has devoted herself to refining her skills in marketing and presenting her artwork. Now, she's excited to share her wealth of knowledge and experiences with PWAS members. Whether you're seeking guidance in your art-making process or looking to enhance your art business strategies, Lynn's presentation promises to be an invaluable resource.

In order for Lynn to truly help you, and to formulate the best questions for her to answer for you, please take a look at her website, sign up for her emails, and take a look at her Instagram account. While you are at it, take note of any questions that may occur to you and bring them to the meeting or share them with Lynn in advance. The links are below, and since you can easily unsubscribe if you decide to, it's an easy risk free way to sample a successful, knowledgeable artist's business approach and tap into some of the experience behind the choices.

To see more of Lynn's work and accomplishments, visit her website at: www.lynngoldstein.com

Sign up for Lynn's emails here

View Lynn's Instagram account here

P.S. Curious how artists live? Find out by joining my list here.

www.lynngoldstein.com

Short Biography

Northern Virginia artist Lynn Goldstein has been making art professionally for over twenty-five year. She has exhibited widely, winning awards, in nationally juried exhibitions and galleries, and her work is enjoyed in private and public collections throughout the United States and Europe, including the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, and the United States Department of State. Notably, one of her paintings was selected for the permanent collection in the Jean-Haffen Museum, Dinan, France, upon her completion of an artist residency in 2011. Additionally, Lynn was one of fifteen American artists selected to participate in the Caravan multi-cultural and international art project which took place at the National Cathedral in Washington, DC and the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in NYC in 2014. Her installation work exploring her Jewish roots was selected for exhibition at the Smithsonian S Dillon Ripley Center in Washington, D.C. in 2015, and a different piece was selected for display there in 2017. Lynn has taught adult art classes for over two decades and has created her own online courses as well. She has taught workshops in the mid Atlantic region and also in Southern France, Portugal, and Italy. Lynn is excitedly preparing to teach in both Arles, France and Cinque Terre, Italy in 2024.

“Family Tree,” 20”x20,”acrylic on wood, ©Lynn Goldstein

"I Walk Enchanted," 12"x12," acrylic on wood, ©Lynn Goldstein